

Water Technology

Certificate

Why Water Technology?

The Water Technology certificate program at Bay College is intended to train entry-level maintenance operators and laboratory technicians for jobs with municipalities and industries involved with control and prevention of water pollution. This certificate program can be completed in a quick 8 months. Average salaries associated with this type of certificate can range from $47,000 to $62,000 with great benefits and the ability to raise your career and salary at a very fast rate. The Certificate in Water Technology will ladder into the Associate in Applied Science in Water Resource Management Degree. A water career has a top placement rate!

Why Bay College?

Bay College offers this certificate as part of our Bay Flex programs. A competency based education plan that allows your experience to get you, through your program faster. Our programs are recognized by EGLE for licensing credentials and for continuing education credits. Our courses are offered both online and on campus with quality instruction including state of the art water tech lab and maintenance training room.

Beyond Bay College

You can finish your Associate Degree right here at Bay College or at other community colleges once that certificate is complete.

Contact

Bay College

2001 N Lincoln Rd
Escanaba, MI 49829

Bay College West Campus

2801 N US 2
Iron Mountain, MI 49801

Office of Admissions

906-217-4010
admissions@baycollege.edu

Troy Gallagher

Instructor
(906) 217-4001
troy.gallagher@baycollege.edu

baycollege.edu

