

Construction Management

Associate in Arts Degree

Why Construction Management?

Construction Management deals with the on-site aspects of a construction project. Construction managers work directly with engineers, materials, and use various techniques, to take designs and transform them into real construction units. The US Bureau of Labor Statistics states that there will be an 11% increase in Construction Management jobs by 2026. Construction Manager Salaries, average base pay – 70,734 USD/year.

Why Bay College?

The Construction Management program at Bay College offers you the chance to earn all of your liberal studies credits as you complete all of your Michigan Transfer Agreement requirements.

Beyond Bay College

Students interested in transferring to a four-year institution to obtain a bachelor's degree or higher may find opportunities in the following areas of study:

- Construction Management (Eastern Michigan University)
- Construction Management (Ferris State University)
- Construction Management (Lawrence Technological University)
- Construction Management (Michigan State University)
- Construction Management (Northern Michigan University)
- Construction Management (Michigan Technological University)
- Construction Management (University of Michigan)

Contact

Bay College

2001 N Lincoln Rd
Escanaba, MI 49829

Bay College West Campus

2801 N US 2
Iron Mountain, MI 49801

Office of Admissions

906-217-4010
admissions@baycollege.edu

baycollege.edu